

Opportunity to appear in a foster care training film!!

Parents' Action for Children (www.parentsaction.org) is a foundation started by Rob Reiner. The foundation is currently in the process of making a film to be used for training foster parents and is looking for families who have adopted children from the public child welfare system to appear in the film.

If you would like to be considered, please contact Sara Shepard at 323-877-8014 or saraeshepa@aol.com to discuss the possibility with her. The cut-off date is May 5, 2006.
