

The Connecticut Parent Advocacy Center (CPAC) is bringing Next STEPS to West Haven this summer. Please contact us and let us know if you or someone you know is interested in taking the training.

Next STEPS

Support and Training for Educators and Parents

Next STEPS is a free training that provides guidance to parents of children with special needs to enable them to, and help others advocate for appropriate educational services for their children. This training will provide you with information on:

Effective Communication – July 20

Understanding the IEP – August 10

Preparing for the PPT – July 27

Dispute Resolution – August 17

Special Education Laws – August 3

Transition to Adult Life/Review – August 24

When: Wednesday evenings 6:00pm – 9:00pm
July 20, 2005 through August 24, 2005

Where: West Haven City Hall
2nd Floor Conference Room
355 Main Street, West Haven

Registration is required.

Please Contact:

The Connecticut Parent Advocacy Center

1-800-445-2722

cpac@cpacinc.org